A photograph of a classical statue of a woman, likely a personification of a city or virtue, standing in a public square. The statue is made of a light-colored stone or marble and is dressed in a long, flowing robe. She has her hair styled in an elaborate, classical fashion. In her right hand, she holds a scroll, and in her left, she holds a small, round object. The background features a large, ornate fountain with water spraying upwards, creating a bright, sparkling effect against a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bathed in bright, natural light, suggesting a sunny day.
