WHERE

THE DESIGN

The site is mold by Alexa Aguila Genoyer's artistic touch which you'll discover right from the lobby through her colorful paintings in contrast with the sobriety of the chosen materials such as teak, lava stone. She has succeeded in creating a very special ambiance that makes modernity serve tradition, nestled into the abundant greenery. Sobriety and the refinement of the decoration lend to the site that special soothing touch, an invitation to relax body and soul in the entertaining heart of Bali.

Blue Karma is a refreshing explanation of an intimate Balinese communal featuring private villa compounds and public areas for social interaction. Each villa is a unique sanctuary that blends ethnic craft and modern amenities create comfortable living.

Weathered recycled timber, antiques from Sumba and other island of Indonesia used to create unique interiors rich in character.
