THE PENINSULA

T O K Y O

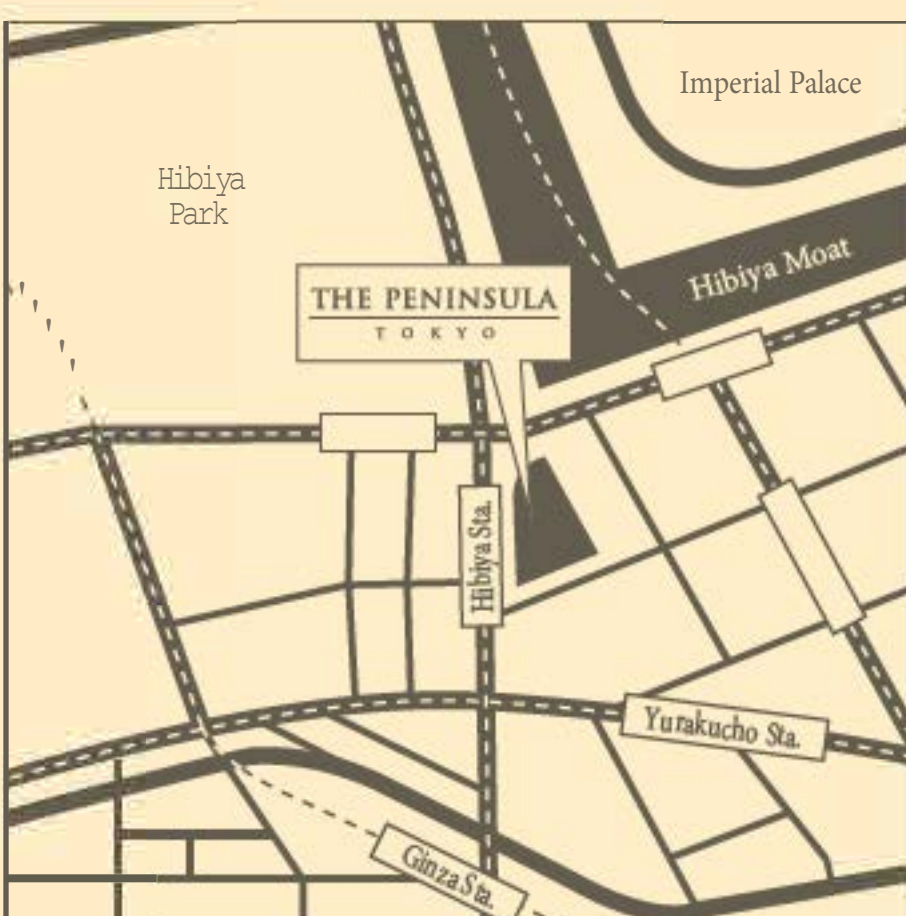

Tokyo's Landmark

Deluxe Park View Room

Deluxe Suite

DESCRIPTION

The hotel is superbly located in the prestigious financial district of Marunouchi, opposite the Imperial Palace and a three-minute walk from the shopping capital of Ginza. Modern and contemporary with Japanese accents, this gracious free-standing hotel offers 314 spacious guestrooms, including 47 suites, five unique restaurants, a modern lounge bar, two ballrooms, six elegantly designed function rooms, a wedding chapel, a Japanese ceremony room, a fitness center and The Peninsula Spa.

LOCATION

The hotel's sweeping main entrance is conveniently located at the crossroads of Hibiya Dori and Harumi Dori avenues, the gateway to the Marunouchi and Ginza districts. The hotel's other principal entrance opens onto the famed Marunouchi Naka Dori avenue, the Rodeo Drive of Tokyo, with JR Yurakucho Station a mere two-minute walk away. From basement level one, the hotel directly connects to Hibiya Station, offering access to four major train lines, making The Peninsula the most accessible luxury hotel in Tokyo.

ACCOMMODATION

Modern and contemporary with Japanese-inspired accents, each guestroom and suite blends traditional Peninsula standards of comfort and innovative technology with elements of Japanese heritage and culture. Taking the design brief "international in design, but Japanese by inspiration," interior designer Yukio Hashimoto intertwines rich earth tone colors, woods, lacquer, marble and stone with design and functionality to create a luxurious living environment.

Features include:

- Deluxe marble bathroom with television
- Flat-screen television with cable, satellite channels, in-room movies and Internet radio
- CD and DVD player
- Telephones with VOIP technology for complimentary long-distance calls
- Direct-dial telephone with dual lines and voice mail
- Executive work desk
- Complimentary wired and wireless broadband Internet access
- Private in-room multi-functional fax machine
- Coffee-and tea-making facilities
- Self-contained dressing room
- Valet box
- In-room safe
- Individual thermostat control
- Rooms equipped for disabled accessibility
- Non-smoking rooms

BUSINESS AND MEETING FACILITIES

With over 1,300 sq m (14,000 sq ft) of banquet and meeting areas, The Peninsula Tokyo offers seamless service to ensure a higher level of creativity, convenience and efficiency for planning events of all types and sizes.

A grand staircase and two dedicated elevators connect The Grand Ballroom, The Ginza Ballroom and six elegant function rooms, making it easier for guests to move efficiently from location to location. All function rooms feature the latest in technology and are Wi-Fi enabled for better connectivity, allowing for communication access from all points in the meeting venues, public areas and guestrooms.

Located on the third floor, The Grand Ballroom features views of the Imperial Palace Gardens and can accommodate 250 people for a reception and 170 people for a banquet. The Ginza Ballroom features a private function area and spectacular chandelier, and accommodates up to 130 people for a reception and 90 for a banquet. Located on the same floor as The Grand Ballroom, the third-floor banquet area offers themed locations and is ideal for large-scale events.

The East Room, The West Room and The South Room are located on level four, making it easier to accommodate breakout meeting room requirements and logistics for small-to medium-sized meetings. With high ceilings and pillarless interiors for unobstructed views, The West Room and The South Room offer natural sunlight overlooking Marunouchi Naka Dori. The Majestic Room and The Astor Room are located on level five and are ideal for groups of up to 60 people. Each room may be divided into two smaller meeting rooms, with The Japanese Ceremony Room providing a unique Japanese setting.

The Seven Seas Pacific Aviation Lounge and The Sky Room are two exceptional venues that are accessed by private elevators from the lobby. Both are located on the 24th floor.

The Seven Seas Pacific Aviation Lounge pays tribute to the history and development of civil aviation in Japan. With spectacular views of Ginza, an outside terrace, two large dining tables, a sofa lounge area and private restrooms, it is ideal for small, private events.

The Sky Room also offers access to an outside terrace with breathtaking views of Ginza, the Tokyo International Forum and Tokyo Bay, making it the ideal venue to make a lasting impression.
